

20th Annual Crime Victims Conference Award Nomination Form

In 1981, President Ronald W. Reagan proclaimed the first Victims' Rights Week, calling for "a renewed emphasis on, and an enhanced sensitivity to the rights of victims." As the discipline of crime victim services has grown over the years, so has the number of remarkable individuals and organizations that significantly contribute to its success. Today, the field includes countless people and programs that, through vision, action and leadership, have improved the lives of victims in the aftermath of crime.

Each year, through the prestigious Utah Council on Victims of Crime (UCVC) Service Awards, top state officials honor extraordinary individuals and programs that provide services to victims of crime. The UCVC coordinates the submission of nominations for programs and individuals whose work has been particularly noteworthy, and who exemplify the long-term commitment that characterizes many of our State's victim's service providers, some for who are also victims of crime. The UCVC will hold the 20th Annual Crime Victims Conference on April 26th – 27th at the South Towne Exposition Center in Sandy, Utah. The Award Ceremony will be held on April 26 at noon. The UCVC invites you to submit a nomination.

Questions to consider when choosing and writing up your nominee:

- What accomplishments has the nominee made on behalf of crime victims?
- How long has the nominee served victims of crime?
- If the nominee is a paid professional working with crime victims, how do his or her contributions qualify as beyond the call of duty?
- How has the nominee's service or program affected the community or other jurisdictions?
- How have the actions of the nominee influenced attitudes, policies, or practices in victim services?
- What accomplishments has the nominee made on behalf of crime victims, and how are those accomplishments unique and original?
- How has the nominee's work brought about change in new or nontraditional areas of victim rights or services?
- How has the nominee's service to victims contributed to bringing closer collaboration between the nominee's particular discipline and the victims' field?
- How have the nominee's leadership and vision helped change public policy and influence attitudes?
- How can the nominee's volunteer contributions to victim services be considered extraordinary?
